DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

1. Claims 1-3, 6, 8-11, and 14-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ensley (3166810).

Ensley discloses an apparatus having a plurality of interconnected retaining podions (22&23), an attachment portion (24). The method is merely the natural use of the claimed apparatus.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ensley (3166810).

- a. Ensley is discussed above.
- b. Ensley discloses the claimed invention except for flexible material such as plastic. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to made the invention out a flexible material such as lastic, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 5, 7, and 12-13 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 1/20/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

6. Applicant has amended the claims to recite sequential.

c. The term sequential means following one after another; but it does not mean one after another in a geometrical sense. The one after another would apply if the bores were aligned in on a radial line or even on a curve, angle or etc. What the applicant needs to do is define the geometry of the passages in terms of being longitudinally aligned and vertical and mention that the actual passages are angular with regard to the longitudinal or vertical line.

Conclusion

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
